We wish to thank our sponsors whose support make this newsletter possible. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

Your Prayers are needed.

At the 11886 Council Meeting 14 November, 2017 the Knights were asked to pray for the following Knights and their family members who are ill or have passed away:

Hudson McIssac, Marie-Ange Paillé, Greg Robinson and wife, Brian and Sally Prudella, Al Sullivan's son David, Gary Richards's middle sister who passed away and younger sister who is very ill.

Who is John Donald (Don) Clark?

Don was born in the Township of Alderborough (south-west of St. Thomas), Ontario in December 1932. He had two sisters and one brother and was the youngest of the family. His parents farmed two farms. One was in Kent County and the other was in Elgin.

He had a quarter mile walk to attend Aldborough Public School. When he was attending public school he was given the nickname "Spats" as he wore spats just like Neville Chamberlain. Don completed his grade 12 at Ridgetown High School. Upon completion he attended a small campus of Guelph University located at Ridgetown College of Agriculture. There he completed the first two years of university and carried on to Guelph University for the last two years so in 1953 he completed a degree in Agriculture with a major in Animal Husbandry. For the Knights of this newsletter who were brought up in cities, Animal Husbandry is the science of breeding and caring for farm animals.

Don always enjoyed raising cattle and maintained his own herd of purebred black angus cattle over the years and finally at his own farm (Moonmist Farm on Hwy. 15, north of 401) where he has lived since 1977. He bought 90 acres of farm pasture in the early 70's and then built the house, barns and out buildings. Over the years Don has had up to 80 or more cattle on the farm and for several years raised organic chickens and turkeys.

Don's career upon graduation began when he worked for several months at W.G. Thomson, a grain company in Rodney. Because Don enjoyed working with cattle so much and with his background in Animal Husbandry, he moved to Kingston where he was offered a job as herdsman for a herd of 200 head of cattle at Birmingham Farms, near Joyceville. At the time Birmingham Farms was owned by senior politicians and they had a plan to sell it to the penitentiary system. When this happened (Joyceville Institution was eventually built in 1959), Don decided to apply for a job as a Herdsman at Kingston Penitentiary (KP).

Don was hired for the herdsman position at KP, however, he only worked a few days in this position. Walter Johnson, Warden at the KP at the time, needed staff that had degrees. Don indicated that the Warden did not care what the degree major was in and hence, the Warden offered him the position of Classification Assistant within the first week of employment at KP and Don started this new job immediately. After a short while Don was promoted to Classification Officer and then Assistant Deputy Warden at KP. He then transferred to the position of Assistant Deputy Warden at Joyceville Institution.

One day, Mr. Victor Richmond, the Regional Director for the Ontario Region, Correctional Services of Canada (CSC) arrived unexpected at Joyceville Institution and came directly to Don's office. To Don's immense surprise he was advised by the Regional Director that he was going to be appointed immediately as the "Warden" at Prison for Women. He drove Don directly to the Prison for Women that day and had Don meet with the management representatives (Keepers). When they were assembled together in a boardroom, introductions were made and the Regional Director stated in front of everyone "Don, you have one week to get this place in order", and left the room to Don's amazement as he assumed the Regional Director would assist him through this initial meeting with his new staff. Don said this was one day in his career that he would never forget. To jump from Assistant Deputy Warden to Warden was quite unheard of at the time because a Warden would generally have to have been a Deputy Warden before being promoted to a Warden position. As well, Don was one of the youngest corrections employees to be appointed to a Warden position in the history of Corrections.

Don indicated that he did enjoy his new position as Warden at Prison for Women for about four years before being appointed as Warden at KP where he had first started his career. Years after Don was retired, he was invited to the official closing of the Prison for Women and after the ceremony with officials and dignitaries concluded, Don took his family on a tour and told his sons some very humorous stories about being the Warden at the only female penitentiary in Canada at the time.

He indicated that KP was a maximum security institution and several severe and critical incidents happened at KP over many decades including riots, inmates escaping, the murder of staff, inmates and many hostage-taking incidents. The most famous riot occurred in 1971 and lasted many days. Don said when the troops from Canadian Forces Base Petawawa were finally called in and once the soldiers demonstrated their riot drills, the prisoners gave up the next day. Several inmates had been murdered and/or tortured by other inmates prior to the riot being quashed. Also, several staff were being held as hostages during the riot and it was a very tense situation for all trying to negotiate their safe keeping.

Don's last appointment as a Warden was at Millhaven Institution, which was still being built at the time of the KP 1971 riot. He was overseeing plans, specifications and the building of a newer, more modern structurally sound maximum security institution with some experienced staff that would consult and work with Don on recommendations to senior management if changes were being suggested. It was critical that every effort was made to not allow escapes as the institution was also to have a "Special Handling Unit" within the facility and house the most dangerous inmates incarcerated in Canada.

Continuation of Who is John Donald (Don) Clark?

Unfortunately, due to the riot at KP it was necessary to move busloads of inmates (a lot of the inmates that were ring leaders and/or involved in the riot) from the KP Segregation Unit to the new Millhaven Institution Segregation Unit sooner than they had expected. The Segregation Unit at Millhaven was as large as the one at KP and could hold the inmates transferred from KP. However, some issues and recommendations that Don, Public Works and senior management were still reviewing e.g. the improvement to the new existing fencing, perimeter lighting, etc. had not been finalized. So Millhaven officially opened prior to some of the final recommendations on some issues were addressed.

Many Kingstonians will likely recall the mass escape from Millhaven Institution not long after it opened as they escaped under the fence (Don believes it was approximately 13 inmates and all were considered dangerous). They were eventually all captured and some of them actually turned themselves in as they were hiding in barns and the woods and did not have food, water or know where they were. Many people may recall that the police, Correctional Services staff and others set up armed roadblocks and searches and questioning was done with the occupants of the cars, opening car trunks, searching transports, etc.

Unfortunately, some politicians at the time wanted a scapegoat for the Millhaven mass escape and Don was held to account for this. As Warden he was called as a witness to all the proceedings. Proceedings with all escaped inmates and others, including Don took place at the Napanee Courthouse. Don knew he was not to blame as he had previously, in writing, recommended changes to fencing and perimeter lighting before the prison officially opened. Don's defence attorney and former Member of Parliament, Arthur Maloney, discussed this situation with Robert Stanfield, the leader of the Federal Conservative Party. He in turn spoke on Don's behalf with the Prime Minister of Canada, Pierre Trudeau who was in the minority government position at the time and Don was then absolved of any wrong-doing in regards to the mass escape.

Don related several other interesting stories in his career in the prison system. While a warden he conducted what is known as Warden's Court where prisoners who did breaches of one kind or other were summoned to account. In one case, his Deputy Warden lost his temper when he believed the inmate lying and for no apparent reason, swung at a prisoner and knocked the prisoner out cold. This staff member was given a career move in short order.

Don later was promoted to an executive position of Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Ontario Region and then the Regional Executive Officer position. Both positions meant he was the second in command for the Ontario Region, Correctional Services of Canada and he occupied this role for many, many years. He was also offered the position of Regional Deputy Commissioner in a Western Region and later the Maritimes but declined both as he did not want to leave Kingston, his friends or his home and farm.

When Don was considering retiring, he was offered a five year appointment to a Governor In Council appointment as a member of the National Parole Board. With his background and vast experience in the prison system it was a good choice. He was appointed to this five year Parole Board Member position by then Prime Minister Brian Mulroney. He retired after this appointment as he had spent over 35 years of work experience in corrections and the National Parole Board. He wished to spend more time working on his farm and having more time with his family.

Don's wife when they met, also worked for Correctional Services of Canada and she retired in January 2010 as an Assistant Warden at the Pittsburgh Institution so she could spend more time with Don as he had already been retired for many years. Don was a widower when Janet and Don were married in 1985. They have two boys, John David is the oldest son and the youngest is Zane. At the time of writing this article they are expecting to be grandparents for the first time in May 2018 and at 85, Don is very excited and looking forward to this new chapter in his life, as is Janet!

Don became a Knight over twenty years ago. When he was a third degree member he became Treasurer. Also, when he became 4th degree he also became treasurer for the 4th degrees in the district. Having the job of Treasurer required him to line up at a bank customer line-up periodically to drop money off. Don was still working in Corrections at the time and rumours started that Don was moonlighting on a second job for a number of reasons. He chuckled when he recounted this story.

If you want to hear additional stories of the prison system and especially Kingston Penitentiary, drop by and see Don. He could write a book or two on the subject.

The Editor thanks the significant contributions Don's wife Janet, making this article possible.

A child's question on airplanes

One Christmas Day during the World War II, a young family was outside making a snowman. Suddenly an airplane flew by overhead. After it had passed, the youngest child turned to her father and said, "Daddy, how do people climb up to the sky to get into air planes?" Her father explained that passengers didn't have to climb up to the sky to get into the airplanes. The airplanes come down from the sky to get the passengers. We begin the holy seasons of Advent, the beginning of the great feast of Christmas. The child's question helps us to illustrate the mystery of Christmas. God comes down to save us. Saving implies some danger or threat from which we are unable to liberate ourselves. In the midst of our work, worries and cares, the Church calls us to turn towards the Lord Jesus to be saved by him and to be blessed by him. The Lord's 'advent' (coming) is dawning. Let us prepare ourselves during this season for a good welcome to the Lord when he comes. Wishing you all, a very blessed season.

By Fr. Mathew K. Abraham.

Note from our Council Church Director

Here is what the Catechism of the Catholic Church has to say about dressing properly for Mass: To prepare for worthy reception of this sacrament, the faithful should observe the fast required in their Church. Bodily demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest – CCC 1387

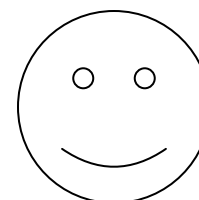

A Little Catholic Humour

Why did Mary with Joseph ride a donkey to Bethlehem?

Because she gave her fiat to God!

Fiat = 'Let it be done.' (Latin origin)

Gift Card Program

The program continues with the usual participants. Year to date profit is $3450 which project to be $4000 by year end. Thank you to Knights Roger and François Bedard, Boyle, Caron, Robert Charest, Robert Chipper, Steve Coombs, Fern Delisle, Roy Gould, Lucas Hacault, Philip Henderson, Desmond Hensman, Guy Lahaie, Roger Levac, William Laudanski, David Manryk, Richard Mears, Raymond Paquin, les deux Jean Pellerin, Jerzy Prugar, Garry Richards, Mackenzie Robinson, Graedib Schaule, Scotty Smith, Mike, Pat and Joe Stenson, and Father Anthony Werunga for their support this year. Great to have 29 fellow Knights participating in this effort. It is sure easier than flogging tickets!

Of course there is room for more of our 81 and growing council members to also support. Pretty simple, use the gift cards for gifts, or for your regular purchases just like cash. If our 81 council members used them only for gas ($100 month) and groceries ($400 month) the program would be bringing in over $13.6K each year. Just imagine the charitable works we could do and it did not cost you a dime. You are never too old to adapt new habits.

We carry plenty in stock and place monthly special orders for those rarer cards. Please visit our website to see what is offered which is practically everything you might think of.

Plan ahead and place an order, It really is simple.

Knights Deal Program

The Knights Deals Program has been quite successful this season with Blue Jays, Redblacks, Argonauts, and Grey Cup events all turning a profit. The annual cycle of events is now evolving to the Senators games. Currently that is healthy in part due to the many strangers who are very happy to purchase tickets at less than box office prices while at the same time supporting our program. Measurements of the program's success include the fact that it has saved 2250 people over $61.5K at the box office while still managing to raise funds to support our charitable programs.

The Come From Away bus trip next April is sold out but a waiting list is being maintained if there are any cancellations. Honda Indy Toronto 2018 seats have been secured. Blue Jay 2018 games reservations will happen by mid - January and next season CFL seats have already been renewed.

If there is an event you would like me to investigate, I do not mind putting in the effort. It was a question from a fellow Knight that resulted in the "Come From Away" bus trips and see what happened. How can you participate? Going to an event would be the simple answer, but more importantly ensuring friends, colleges, co-workers, distant relatives are aware because they will appreciate the deals. I appreciate your assistance in connecting me to fans who are eager to attend, save money and support our program. The website www.knightsdeals.ca is kept current.

I was pleased with the council's decision to target the proceeds to St Mary's Cathedral Restoration, the Providence Manor Appeal and supporting Holy Name Parish Restoration. Thank you to all who are supporting this effort.

The 2018 Basketball Free Throw Competition commences on the 8 January.

Bishop John Barres of Allentown, Pennsylvania, a former collegiate basketball player at Princeton University a strong supporter of the Free Throw Championship. He sees the focus and discipline required to achieve athletic excellence as being valuable in the faith formation and character development of young people. In addition, healthy competition helps young people to handle both good fortune and adversity with grace and dignity. The Knights also offer the Soccer Free Throw Competition which this year was offered in the month September.

District Deputy Report

Happy Charter Anniversary to 11886. Congratulations to your Youth Activities team for ensuring our youth are exposed to the great programs of the Knights. I was pleased to see the effort towards growing the council. Take time to review your charitable hours effort this year as your Financial Secretary will need those numbers 9 Jan., 2018((Fraternal Survey – Copy in Nov Issue of Night Moves and is also on our website). A growing problem is the number of Knights who take the 1st (admission degree) but do not bother to advance through the second and third degree. The obvious consequence is without new qualified 3rd Degree Knights the executive will remain the same old guys doing the same old things. The less obvious is that those Knights who do not advance are normally the ones not participating in other activities and eventually disappearing from the roster feeling unwanted. Remember, if the Knight was important enough for you to sponsor into the council then he should be important enough for you to lead through all the degrees. Please do not leave it to the Membership Chair or other council members to fulfill your obligation as a sponsor. I try to keep the DD portion of your council website current but if there is something you need to know, do not hesitate to ask, because someone else probably needs the same information.

Knights of Columbus A-Team Tackle Yard Work

Thursday 9 November, - GK James Laudanski and Mike Stenson worked as good Samaritans doing yard work for the day. The raked leaves and did garden work. At the end of the day they said they were tired but left a smiling couple behind as their fall chores were completed prior to the snow coming. That night, Mike said he slept like a baby.

District Deputy Conference

Inspiration can come from many places. While sitting through a weekend of presentations at the recent District Deputy Conference, I often picked up some gem of information but for the most part the information was repetitive.

Sometimes I would be screaming internally, "got it, move on to something new" or "yes for the nth time". But the obvious reality is that the information would not need to be covered multiple times if it was acted on promptly and correctly the first time.

As the conference closed a guest speaker emerged and WOW what a finish. Father Thomas Rosica was impressive, inspiring, motivating and enlightening. His conference speech and his homily at the mass that followed made all the boring bits worth the endurance. I do not consider myself an evangelizing person yet when I got home I knew I had to share Father Thomas with others. I asked and he accepted. Thus 7 April Father r Rosica is coming to Kingston. When I started to tell others it became apparent that everyone else seems to know of him, (where have I been?). But they each shared the excitement of having him come. Salt and Light is now saved on my internet favourite list, as it is not in my TV package. Reserve the date, details to follow. Be prepared to be impressed. That shot of spiritual adrenaline has already enlightened my Advent season. I pray that you find something equally inspiring to fill your heart with joy during this fresh beginning to our liturgical year. Thank you for all the positive things you have done in 2017 as Knights to help others, save others, share with other while hopefully filling your own heart with the joy that charity and unity should bring in service with your brother Knights. Merry Christmas.
