Great News

One is the Columbian Award where the council annually conducts and report at least four (4) major involvement programs in each of the sections: Community Programs, Faith Programs, Family Programs, and Life Programs. There have been various changes to the requirements over the last three years. The last change was made in March of 2022. There are recommended and required programs for each category listed on the application. Councils are permitted to report programs that are not part of the recommended group if the program is reported in the proper category. If your council reports a featured program in any category, then the program's minimum requirements must be met and reported on the designated form to receive credit for two activities in that category. We were able to do that for the RVSP program which is a program to provide a bursary to our seminarian – Jude Thusiar. The minimum requirements for each featured program are located in the Faith In Action Booklet. However, the application form is quite detailed. It is very important for all Council Directors to complete the form for each activity we partake in order for this to be completed.

The second award we received was the Founders Award have members participate in two fraternal insurance seminars. We had one seminar in Oct 2021 and another in May 2022. These 45 min – 1 hr seminars have some excellent, knowledgeable, and experienced speakers. There is always a period for questions. I would ask all knights, to consider partaking in these seminars as you always learn something.

These awards are a recognition of the very good work our council has done. To our Knights, as they say in the Navy, Bravo Zulu.

10 Sep BBQ at Holy Name of Jesus Parish

Knight Jim Laudanski organized a contingent of Knights to put on a BBQ at Holy Name of Jesus Church. About 60 or so people attended. Knight Steve Coombs and the musician group he belonged to, Three for a Quarter, played and sang songs much to the enjoyment of the group. The weather was perfect - no wind, no rain and no mosquitoes. A good meal and jaw session made it a nice evening. Besides Knights Jim Laudanski, Roger and Francois Bédard, Nicholas Kowbel , and Steve Combs- we thank Knights Paul Jackson, Pete, Scott, Robert Charest, Gary Richards (our head desert taster) and Roseanne Hogan for making it a pleasant evening.

25 Sep - BBQ at Holy Family Chapel

The Round table knights at Holy Family Chapel also organized a BBQ. Unfortunately the weather forecast was not great due to rain. Hence, plan B was put into effect and tables and seating were arranged at the back of the church and in the kitchen area.

Knight Scotty our Round Table Chairman at the Chapel and organizer of the event, a couple of weeks before the event had badly injured a foot walking up on his deck. Hence, Knight Robert Charest replaced him as the parish organizer. A knight and a church volunteered to do the cooking of burgers, hotdogs, and chicken burgers. These were the only two who had to remain outside in the rain. However, knights like Navy personnel have learnt to work in all weather conditions. About 50 people showed up for the BBQ. We had 8-10 guests who showed up from the Spiritual Centre on the Base which topped up our numbers. We had one individual who visited the cooks for 5 hamburgers which is a record. He had quite an appetite. Children were allowed as much dessert, chips and cheezies as they wanted. We made them happy.

We like to thank Knights Rory Moore, Raymond Paquin, Robert Charest and volunteers Michael Hart and Henri from the chapel to make it an enjoyable BBQ. Well done Knights.

St Vincent de Paul - 14 Sep and 12 Oct

On Wednesday, September 14th, Jim & Marguerite Laudanski and I prepared a popular takeout meal of Nachos with a tasty salsa, cheese, and special sauce to about 160 patrons. Customers enjoyed a dessert with a cup of coffee or a bottle of water along with an option to stock up on some fruits and vegetables and bread to take away with them. We continue to see new faces every month and more children have accompanied their moms recently. One adult patron marked his first ever birthday celebration and was thankful for his six-pack of muffins for him to enjoy at his convenience. Our small staff sung "Happy Birthday" to his surprise.

The access to the facility is much more difficult due to the fact that Stephen Street where St. Vincent de Paul is located is undergoing a major upgrade (access to the street and sidewalks is limited). This has had a negative impact on donations to St. Vinnies but we expect those to St Vincenot de Paul but we expect those to resume before the cold weather sets in. keep them in mind when you find you no longer have use for items that still have good life in them. There's a bid demand for various items including clothes, footwear, small appliances, toiletries, etc. etc. I would expect it will be early October their regular access to the warehouse and pantry returns to normal.

July 8 Entry

On my first trip along the streets of Calcutta a priest came up to me. He asked me to give a contribution to a collection for the Catholic press. I had left with 5 rupees, and I had already given four of them to the poor. I hesitated, then gave the priest the one that remained. That afternoon, the same priest came to see me and brought an envelope. He told me that a man had given him the enveloped because he had heard about my projects and wanted to help me. There were fifty rupees in that envelope. I had the feeling, at that moment, that God had begun to bless the work and would never abandon me.

Consecration To the Ordo Virginum of Holy Family Chapel Parishioner

On 1 Oct the Roman Catholic Military Ordinariate of Canada conducted the consecration of Holly Garnett, a parishioner of Holy Family Chapel at CFB Kingston. Holly is an Associate-Professor at the Royal Military College. Knights of Columbus Chapel Round Table (Raymond Paquin, Jean-Philippe Goulet, Robert Charest), Knight Pat Stenson, Knight Eric Filion and a few parishioners were involved in the set-up and take down of two tents as well as the reception area adjacent to the chapel in the Spiritual Centre Hall on the Base. The Most Reverend Scott McCaig, CC - Bishop of the Military Ordinariate of Canada conducted the consecration ceremony and mass at the Cathedral of St Mary of the Immaculate Conception at 2 PM.

What is consecrated virginity? - A consecrated virgin is a woman who is 'set apart' in a specific liturgical rite to love and serve God and the Church. She is a 'bride of Christ,' as she is united to Christ, something which is awaiting all of us in Heaven. Her life is therefore witnesses to the Kingdom of God and the reality of God's intimate and individual love. The consecrated virgin is committed to lifting up her diocese in prayer and penance. She discerns how to best serve her diocese through her own apostolate. She acts as a public witness to the reality of God's intimate love through her life. There are estimated to be around 5000 Consecrate Virgins around the world today. In Canada there are about 120. What relation does a consecrated virgin have with her diocese?

What does a consecrated virgin do? Consecrated Virginity is first and foremost a vocation of being, rather than doing. Who she is as the bride of Christ gives a strong witness to the world and reminds us each of our heavenly calling and eternal home. Consecrated Virgins are to spend their time in works of mercy and in prayer, according to their spiritual gifts. Consecrated virgins can be found at work in almost any kind of ministry or employment, say, being a university professor or political scientist, for example.

What relation does a consecrated virgin have with her diocese? A consecrated virgin is consecrated by the local bishop, who remains the spiritual father of the consecrated virgins in his diocese. In contrast with religious sisters, who have their religious community as their spiritual family, the "community" of a consecrated virgin is the local diocesan Church. Likewise, they normally live within their community, often in their own homes or apartments
